The Kuwaiti traffic signs can be broadly categorized into:

- Regulatory Signs: These signs mandate specific actions or restrictions, such as speed limits, no-entry zones, and mandatory stops. These signs are typically circular or rectangular and use clear, concise symbols. Examples include stop signs (red octagon), speed limit signs (circular), and "no overtaking" signs (diagonal line across a vehicle symbol).
- Warning Signs: These signs alert drivers to potential hazards ahead, such as sharp curves, pedestrian crossings, or construction zones.
