Key Features and Benefits

- Comprehensive Coverage: The 8th edition provides a wide-ranging examination of fundamental conflict of laws doctrines. The recognition of foreign judgments, for instance, has seen considerable changes since 2010, requiring supplementary research.

Choosing between the 8th edition and more modern alternatives will depend on individual needs. If the goal is to grasp the fundamental principles of conflict of laws, and budget is a concern, the 8th edition can still be valuable. However, practitioners need to supplement its content with up-to-date research and consider using more current texts for the most recent jurisprudence.
